

Autism Policy in Tasmania 2010 and Beyond

Public Meeting

The Committee of Autism Tasmania Inc and the Committee of Action for Tasmanian Autistic Children invite you to attend a public meeting to hear from the political parties contesting the upcoming state election about their proposed policies for the Autism community.

The forum has been arranged to give an opportunity for families affected by autism and those who work with people with autism to hear from all political parties in this state about the proposals they have for dealing with the crisis that currently exists within the Autism community. This is the first forum of its type in Tasmania to give political parties the opportunity to present their autism specific policies to deal with the present crisis for people with autism and specifically those in care.

Interested members of the public are also invited to attend.

When: Sunday, 14 February 2010
Time: 2.00pm sharp to approx 4:00pm
Where: Glenorchy Football Clubrooms,
King George Fifth Park, 1A Anfield Street, Glenorchy
RSVP: No RSVP necessary

Please come along yourself and invite others to come with you and hear representatives from the Tasmanian Labor Party, the Tasmanian Liberal Party and the Tasmanian Greens present their policies for the Tasmanian Autism Community. Each of the parties has been allocated 20 minutes to make their presentation and this will be followed by questions from the floor for up to one hour.

We are offering afternoon tea at the conclusion of the question time session at about 4:00pm. We need to vacate the premises before 5:00pm so the room can be prepared for the next function.

Please contact us should you require further information.
